It made me realise I'm not weird or different. There are others who have been through what I've been through and I'll get through this

Jointly developed by SAFE, HELP and Rape Prevention Education, The Harbour is a new website for anyone affected by sexual abuse or offending, their families and whānau.

This website offers a point of hope for people living the ripple effects of harmful sexual behaviour. Whether you are being harmed, worried about your own behaviour, or worried about someone, The Harbour is a safe place for you to find support.
